

Discharge Summary

Name of the Patient	Jain Sangita	Payer
Age	37	Date of Registration	31/03/2026
Gender	Female	Date of Admission	02/06/2026
UHID	KABHK.0000276322	Date of Discharge	03/06/2026
IPD number	BHKIP183545	Date of Treatment	Click or tap to enter a date.
Admitting Doctor	Dr. Shekar Patil	Type of Discharge	Doctors Advice
Co-managed Doctor	Dr. Shekar Patil

Department of Medical Oncology

Diagnosis: Carcinoma left breast

ER Positive, PR Positive, Her2/Neu Negative, Ki-67 – 60%, clinically T2N1M0

Was patient treated in HCG for the Disease: Yes

Current Admission: For 4th cycle of neoadjuvant chemotherapy with AC regimen (3 weekly)

Brief History: Mrs. Jain Sangita, 37-year-old female, had complaints of lump in the left breast since 20 days, underwent evaluation with sonomammogram on 21.03.2026 suggestive of irregular hypoechoic lobulated lesion in the left breast, IVB suspicious of neoplastic with left axillary lymphadenopathy followed by further patient underwent FDG PET/CT scan on 24.03.2026 suggestive of FDG uptake seen in an ill defined mass lesion measuring approximately 1.8x1.4x2.2cm in the upper central quadrant minimal adjacent architecture distortion is noted. There is no evidence of infiltration of the angle and pectoralis with skin involvement anteriorly. Deep pectoral lymph nodes are noted largest measuring 9x9mm enlarged avid left axillary lymph node is noted measuring 2.6x1.3cm followed by patient underwent USG guided biopsy from the left breast lesion suggestive of IDC grade II with IHC. ER Positive 8+, PR Strong Positive 8+, Her2/Neu Negative, Ki-67 – 70%. Further, patient planned for neoadjuvant chemotherapy with AC regimen(3 weekly) x 4 cycles followed by surgery. The patient has now come for 4th cycle of neoadjuvant chemotherapy with AC regimen (3 weekly) with complaints of generalized weakness. Appetite is reduced. Bowel and bladder habits are normal. No history of fever, cough or breathlessness.

Comorbidities: Nil

Family History: Nil

Past Surgical History: Nil

Any history of missed treatment and lost for follow up: N/A